The Pearl Mae Foundation Awards Two Local Private School Tuition Grants

Jupiter, FL (July 24st, 2017)- The Pearl Mae Foundation has partnered with Jupiter Christian School to award two tuition grants for the 2017-18 academic school year.

The Pearl Mae Foundation selected its scholarship recipients based on in home interviews, academic potential, Christian values, and community involvement.

The students were awarded the grants by Brent Hood, Board Member of the Pearl Mae Foundation. "I am proud to present this scholarship to these two qualified and deserving students that exemplify the Pearl Mae Foundation's mission," said Brent.

Both recipients are members of the 2018 graduating class and have plans to pursue higher education upon graduation. During the summer, they both work various jobs serving others in the local community to supplement their educational expenses. "I have known both these students for a few years now. They possess integrity and Christian values and I look forward to seeing them grow into their full God-given potential. It is organizations like the Pearl Mae Foundation which facilitate giving a hand up to kids with challenging financial backgrounds," said Donald Barnes, Board of Directors member at Jupiter Christian School.
